If I only had a gun.

Mmmm . . . Look at that chick.

You've got to be kidding me.

Who's the loser with the camera?

Don't drop it this time.

What do you know? You're only a boy!

Hi There!

Is it alive?

There's something about this class that I love.

We're outta here!!

To each his own.

It's plain.

It's all for you and all for me.

You can cancel my papers and lock the door . . .

To see,

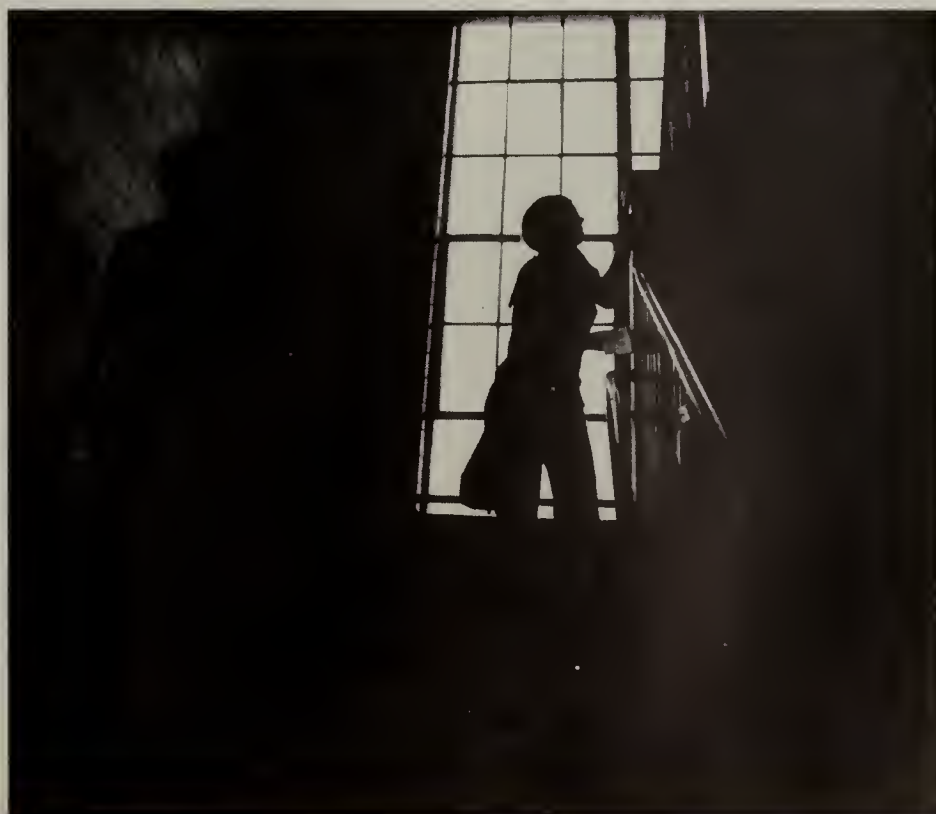

to walk alone, you have to be,

I'm gonna miss you, yes I will;

No matter who you are I love you still.

'cause I'm not gonna be around, any more.

Whaddya think of this edition of Playgirl?

You throw it first!

I'd meet you down the bandroom anytime.

Maybe it's time we put the cheerleaders on the field.

You guys just don't have what it takes.

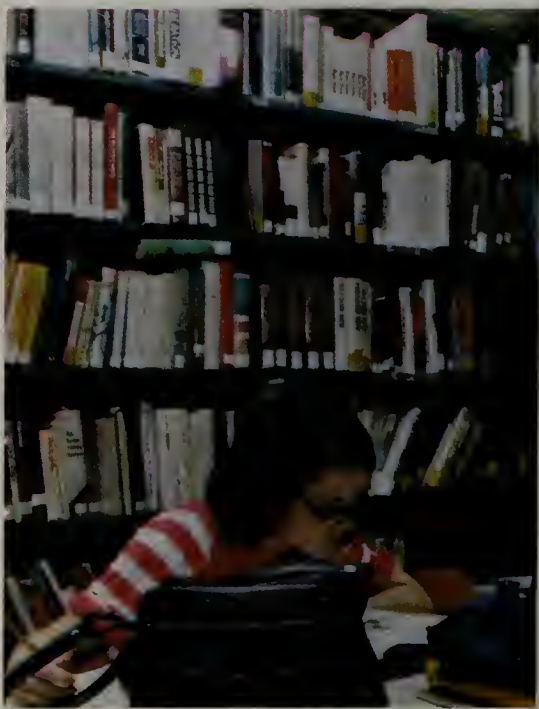

Don't ask me why!

Did you hear the one about . . .

Who me? Suspended?

Up to now, the lost 3 years
of my life were up at North
Not knowing what life will hold
for me as I head forth.
I know the day will come when
I'll look back with sorrow
Knowing I enjoyed being there looking forward to each tomorrow
But when I do look back
I'm sure I'll be well off and on my own
With many memories to be with me when I'm alone
So, North here go my farewells
my last good-bye
As, I leave my lost 3 years
at North Quincy High.

LACK OF FACILITIES HURTS RAIDERS

We started out in 10th grade raring to go, excited about competing and very disappointed about the absence of good equipment, gym time and space. We decided to overcome and we did overcome, the best we could. That was 1973 when our team had two state qualifiers — Susan Hale and Cathy McDonough. Last year was kind of a let down with the exception of our 1st win against Quincy. But we still had another year to go. This year North made a comeback with its individual competition, having 3 state qualifiers, them being Susan Hale, Jane McGilvray and Debbie Rice. It was our last year competing for North and we're going to miss it. But all we can say good-bye and good luck to next year's team. And we hope the city of Quincy gives you the chance (to be a winning team) which we never received.

Dear Students

The Manet Staff has spent an average of 15 hours a week putting together this yearbook . . . to bring to a conclusion our years at North Quincy High School.

We have tried to represent the many different groups of the senior class in our work and hope that we have succeeded.

May your every wish come true as you turn the pages of this book.

Sincerely,
